Frontier Airlines Announces New Service to 4 Cities from PHL

PHILADELPHIA, PA – Frontier Airlines announced today that it will begin non-stop seasonal flights between Philadelphia International Airport (PHL) and Jacksonville, Memphis, Omaha and Madison, Wisconsin starting in 2018, continuing the “Ultra Low Cost Carrier’s” expansion in Philadelphia. Omaha and Madison will be new destinations not currently served from Philadelphia.

Today’s announcement follows Frontier’s news last week that it will begin non-stop flights from PHL to Charleston, SC, starting in February 2018. The 4 new cities unveiled in a news conference today at PHL will bring to 24 the destinations Frontier serves from Philadelphia. Twenty-three of the destinations, which are served with a mix of year-round and seasonal service, have been added since December 2014. Frontier is the only carrier at PHL that offers non-stop flights to San Antonio, Texas; and Punta Gorda, Florida. Those flights operate seasonally.

“This is terrific news,” said Airport CEO Chellie Cameron. “Travelers will not only have options to Jacksonville and Memphis, and more importantly, the service to Omaha and Madison will make it easier for travel between these new Mid-Western destinations. We are very pleased by Frontier’s focus on Philadelphia and look forward to more service to more cities.”

“We are pleased to continue to expand our service from Philadelphia with more affordable flights and access to 24 destinations,” said Josh Flyr, Frontier Vice President of Planning and Revenue Management. “These new flights further support our mission to deliver Low Fares Done Right to the Philadelphia area, and we look forward to delivering this commitment to more Philadelphians.”
