PHL Self Tour
This story is part of the Access for All program for people with disabilities at the Philadelphia International Airport (PHL). This program can be used to assist you when you are flying to or from PHL.
You might be curious if you can visit PHL before your flight for your disability.
You can visit the non-secure areas of the Airport at your convenience.
You can experience areas on the following slides to help you plan and prepare for your flight.
Transportation including parking options, SEPTA train and buses, and other transportation options.
You can practice going from transportation to the terminals.
You can explore ticketing areas.
You can see the non-secure side of the TSA Security station.
You can view the baggage areas.
This map shows PHL areas you can visit in orange, blue and green.
You can call TSA Cares for assistance through Security or if you have questions about security.

Email TSA Cares
(855) 787-2227
Relay: 711
Call 72 Hours before your flight

TSA on the Job: Passenger Support Specialist - YouTube
You can use your visit to plan!

• What do you need for the day of your flight?
• Do you need any disability specific items that will be helpful to deal with the environment?
• Plan how to get a wheelchair or guide assistance, if needed.
• Do you have a plan to get through ticketing and security?
• What other plans can help you with your flight?
You can learn more about accessibility at PHL by visiting https://www.phl.org/about/accessibility
Saron McKee

PHL Director of Access and Accessible Programs
Thank you!