Icelandair Extends Service from Philadelphia to Reykjavik

PHILADELPHIA – Icelandair will expand their seasonal services from Philadelphia to Reykjavik (PHL-KEF) on May 22 with four flights a week on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays until January 6, 2019.

The seasonal International service began in May 2017 and ended in late September.

“We have been very pleased with our partnership with Icelandair over the past year and we are excited with their decision to expand their services at PHL”, said Chellie Cameron, Airport CEO. “This service will continue to make it easier for overseas travelers from Iceland and beyond to visit and explore the birthplace of America.”
