

Invest in Yourself:

New Year Loading...New You!

You've Been Selected!

As part of this exclusive soft launch, 10,000 City employees have been invited to access LinkedIn Learning – fully funded by the Office of Human Resources.

This City-provided account gives you full access to all courses and tools, beyond what's available in the free version.

ACTIVATE YOUR ACCOUNT TODAY and start learning your way!

Why Activate Your Account?

- 23,000+ Expert-Led Courses
Explore topics across leadership, communication, project management, science, technology, engineering, administrative skills, and more.
- Career Journey Tools
Map out your goals and let LinkedIn connect you with courses tailored to your next move.
- Coaching & Professional Growth
Sharpen your skills for career conversations, confidence-building, and development planning.
- Learn Anytime, Anywhere
Access LinkedIn Learning on your laptop or mobile app – learning that fits your schedule.
- Earn Certificates, PDCs & CEUs
Build your professional portfolio and stay current in your field

For questions: reach out to your HR/Training contact
Or visit this link: <https://forms.office.com/g/4sR9xDcuaB>

Activate within 30 days!

Invitation expires December 13.

Check your email for your invitation from:

- messages-noreply@linkedin.com
- linkedin@e.linkedin.com

Don't Miss Out!

Join thousands of your fellow City employees already learning and growing with LinkedIn Learning.

Explore courses, rate what you love, and share reviews to help others find great learning experiences too.

All of this begins with one click.

Made possible by the Office of Human Resources, in partnership with the Office of Talent &
Employee Success