

SEPTA Airport Rail Line Schedule Modified for Eagles Parade

EFFECTIVE THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2018

Due to the Eagles Super Bowl Parade, SEPTA has announced modified service across all regional rail lines including the Airport Rail Line on Thursday, February 8.

The Airport Line will depart every 30 minutes with the 5:07 AM and 5:37 AM trains leaving from the Terminal E-F Platform. Beginning at 6:07 AM, the Airport Line will begin operating with hourly departures from PHL, stopping only at Eastwick and 30th Street.

Inbound trains will depart 30th Street every 30 minutes with the 4:29 AM and 4:59 AM trains. Beginning at 5:29 AM, inbound trains will operate hourly from 30th Street, stopping only at Eastwick and the Airport terminals.

The hourly schedule will continue throughout the day. Regular service will resume on Friday morning.

For more complete information on the modified SEPTA service, visit www.septa.org/eagles call 215.580.7800. Also, follow on Twitter @SEPTAPHILLY.