

Work with

This comprehensive training series covers three essential topics. Participants will explore generational dynamic to foster collaboration, engage in discussions to enhance cultural competency and learn strategies to promote respectful interactions among colleagues.

Generations at Work: Embracing Diversity for Success

This course examines generational differences in the workplace and improve collaboration.

Wednesday, March 5th

Global Diversity Training

This course provides practical strategies to foster an inclusive and culturally sensitive work environment.

Tuesday, April 29th

10:00 AM-1:00 PM

International Plaza Two, Suite 325 HR Training Room

Civility at Work

PHL employee will explore the impact of respectful communication and the promotion of collaboration among colleagues.

Wednesday, March 19th

